The May issue of Frontier News is now available at Church and also on line if you prefer. In February the Bush Chaplains came together in Sydney to share experiences. There are again some interesting articles in this issue. It's about getting to know your Bush Chaplains. Grab a copy and read what these wonderful folk do in remote Australia.

Worshipping at St Martins in Lent and at Easter as an Intercultural Congregation
Psalm 118

On Easter Sunday Kathy reflected on how this Psalm had impacted on her life and her journey with God in a secular society. She spoke about her place in her Church Community. "Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, his love endures forever."
