Filled with the Holy Spirit -Act 2: 4

The Spirit is often perceived in moments of ecstasy or of deep peace, in wonder and joy. On Pentecost Sunday, however, we hear that the Spirit is poured out in unsettling times and on all people, moving women to prophesy, young people to have visions, and the powerless to witness to the truth with courage (vv. 17-20). As Jesus promised, the Spirit is with us and in us, empowering us to participate in God's mission to re-create the earth (Jn 14:17,26). We trust that when we carry out Jesus' works of healing, teaching, truth-telling and freeing, the Spirit is there. At Pentecost, we are reminded that by God's presence and power, the church is born and is called to bless all creation through the generations. May you sense the Spirit moving in and through your life! --Sophia
