Carpark & Garden Update

If you have been down to the Church recently you will have seen that the renovations are well under way and that the car park is looking amazing.
Another busy bee has been planned. This time to spread the top soil over all the garden areas. The soil will be delivered on Friday 11th July by 1pm.
There will be two busy bees to do this work, one at 1.15pm on Fri 11th July and then to finish the work at 1pm on Sat 12th July.

What is Presbytery?

A brief introduction to the Presbytery of Western Australia

Never been to Presbytery, not sure what happens and what's it all about. How does our's relate to the Uniting Church in WA. Who is doing what in our Church. This recently revised booklet can be downloaded and viewed.

Check out who's on page seven, and why is she there.

$301.70

On the 30th June we reached our target of $300 for Uniting WA through Containers for Change. Thank you everyone. Now let's see what we can do next year. $400?

90

Happy birthday to Margaret McEwan who will turn 90 on Monday. Congratulations Margaret we hope you have a wonderful day celebrating this very special birthday.

On Monday Mel Heatherly is having a knee operation at St John of God Subiaco. Our best wishes to Mel for and prayers for successful operation followed by a speedy recovery.

VOLUNTEER WITH US!

Orange Sky is coming to Forrestfield! We support people experiencing homelessness and hardship through access to free laundry and genuine conversation.

 Thursdays, 1pm - 3pm

 St Martins Uniting Church
57 Hale Road, Forrestfield

Sign up today!

The start of our journey with Orange Sky is getting closer. They have 3 trained volunteers, but need another 3 to make a sustainable team. These people would volunteer for, and be trained by Orange Sky.
Along with the Orange Sky team some St Martin's folk will provide the sausage sizzle and cuppa. If you are happy to be a volunteer once per week for Orange Sky please click:
