It's been busy during the break

Thank you to all who have been busy getting the Op Shop ready for the new year. Cleaning, including shelves, air-conditioning vents and carpet, also cleaning and sorting kitchen drawers.
Community Centre floors have been cleaned and sealed. Christmas decorations packed away. The Orange Sky sausages sizzled and all the odd jobs that are done at this time of the year. Thank you.
It is appreciated!

Reflection: Matt 3: 13-17 The baptism of Jesus is a pivotal moment, where Jesus steps into the waters of repentance, choosing to identify with all of us. It is a profound act of solidarity, showing us how God chooses to stand with humanity.

Imagine we hear that voice declaring, "This is my beloved, with whom I am well pleased". It is a deep affirmation of divine love and purpose; our worth isn't about what we achieve or our status in society, but simply about being cherished by God and accepting ourselves.

Don't forget those cans and bottles for recycling. Last year St Martin's recycled 3,017. Can we beat that this year? Every can or bottle that is recycled helps to protect the environment and also supports UnitingWA.

It's January,
there isn't a lot happening and I am really sorry but I was unable to fill this space! Better luck next week I hope.
